struda carries one pound less than in stake of last week, but it seems as distance is the more important matter

The horse with the Spanish name set a the pace, as one of the trio which led van last Saturday as the Inaugural went down the backstretch. Taby cut off at the first turn. In the run e, however, Eestrada seemed to have while the strongly-finishing gray sough, while the strongly-finishing gray siding came with a rush at the close that ould have tanded him a winner had the see been twenty yards longer. It appears as if Taby holds him safe at his race. And it seems equally sure that the gray should win from Jordan. At bot, the handscapping is close enough to ring the three well together, and a tight if of the Ice Water-Big Ben-Autumn leaves variety should ensue.

Densidering the fast state of the track, the speed of Estrada Palma in the early stages and the manner in which Taby Tosa can finish, it appears as if the record for the course should be closely apposined, at least in this event.

In the fifth race a good array of 2-year-cids is presented. Platoon seems best of the aggregation, in spite of his recent decast at Delmar over a sloppy track. Franco is entered here at a small enough sum to bring his weight down to ninety-two pounds, and this should make him a trong factor, as, with but three pounds as than Joe Kelley and Platoon, he beat wan both.

Ith an even break to-day and with the ng Fair Grounds stretch to make up round in case an entry gets off a bit slig, it looks as though Platoon should in with France an easy second. Leenja is said to have shown good form her work of late. This was a very ndy mare last fall and she is said to be just now. In that case, she should

SLOG PER WEEK FOR TREATMENT

AT THE FAIR GROUNDS.

In spite of the fact that he picks up a pounds over the weight earried in the stigural of last Saturday, Taby Tosa are not only to have a bright chance for the ag end of the purse at the Fair sounds this afternoon, the gray gelding seming best in a good quartet.

Estrada Palma is in the same event and the guest of the same due to get second money, while the distriction in the second face, while Happy Hooligan seems best in the opening race.

AT UNION TRACK.

With the exception of the third race, large fields of a fair class of horses will characterize the racing at Union Park today, under fair skies and on a fast track. The fifth race, at four and one-half fur-longs, for 2-year-olds, is made the feature to-day. It is the first handleap, that has been given to the youngsters and it will be doubly interesting on that account.

As a matter of fact, the most consistent running at the track has been done by 2-year-olds They perform well and have, without exception, ran to form whether the track was fast or a sea of mud.

Bearhunter is the class of the race and should win, although the handicapper has given him a pretty good package considergiven him a pretty good package considering his recent performance. On her race yesterday, Fondness, with only ninetyseven pounds up, should give a good account of herself and will, under a proper ride, prove the contender at the wire. Ella Waggoner, in light, should be in the money, and may prove the winner. She has been out but twice. She won her first out and was off badly ir her second out, and finished in the ruck.

and was off badly in her second out, and finished in the ruck.

The race really looks between Bearhunter, Fondness and Ella Wassoner. Inquiry ran a splendid race the other day at 10 to 1, and in an easier field turned around and did nothing the next day. He does not figure to win to-day on the basis of a handicap. The Moustabout ran a poor race yestarday, Beecher has an outside chance, but has shown no liking of a fast track. Even with eighty-eight pounds Rose Dodge is outclassed. Thora Lee with eighty-seven pounds has a meager outside chance.

There is really nothing in the first race.

dighty-seven pounds has a meager outside chance.

There is really nothing in the first race that is attractive. George W., who might have been the favorite, is dead. Damisella will likely be made the favorite, and should win. Reprise ran a poor race yesterday, but was in a much better field and got off poorly. Equity should be in the money and may prove a contender.

Virgie d'Or may prove the winner of the second race. She is a good one, but it is her first out, and she must show something.

Rio Chico looks the winner of this race, with Cursus second, and Fulse third. It is just Rio Chico's distance. Miss Guido, a recent arrival from the Fair Grounds, ran the other day, but did nothing to recommend her. Deerhunter has an outside chance, but does not seem to be ready.

The third race is made up of a short side chance, but does not seem to be ready.

The third race is made up of a short field. It should be won by Monda, with Leech second, and probably a serious contender, and Springbrook third. The latter is the class of the race, but has run her best races in the mud.

'Mike Strauss stands out as the winner of the fourth race. He run a bang-up race his last cut, and was only beaten by a head. He is in comparatively light and, like Big Injun, is a versatile runner and likes a fast track, as well as the mud. Anzeiger should be second and Beaugard third.

Gus Lanks, in with 8 pounds, looks the third.

Gus Lanks, in with 25 pounds, looks the winner of the sixth race. His price will doubtless be attractive, although there is much speed in the race. Budweiser will be the one that Gus will have to beat Lenox should be in the money, and there are various others who have a smart chance.

chance.

The distribution of jockeys will cut much figure in this and other rices at Union Park to-day. HERMIS RUNS IN GREAT FORM.

GEORGE W. AND SYRLIN KILLED

Racing Days of Veteran Race Horse Are Over - Large Crowd Witnesses Spirited Racing.

Three of the six favorites won at Union Park yesterday, and the other three were long shots that had a good chance, and were backed by the speculator, who is wont to get better odds than 2 or 3 to 1 for his money.

The attendance continues to increase, and the crowd was larger yesterday than any Tuesday since the track opened, Bet-ting was spirited, and two new ring books cut in, making a total of sixteen books, all of which handled a large amount of money.

The first serious mishap since the track opened occurred yesterday, when George W., a valuable horse, was killed as the result of a spill in the second race, and three jockeys—Heldel, Burton and M. Kelly-were injured. The former, Heidel, had his collar-bone broken and was unconscious for more than an hour. Burton and Kelly were but silghtly injured, and and Kelly were but slightly injured, and will be able to ride to-day.

George W., ridden by Heidel, with an excellent chance of winning the race, broke down at the head of the stretch. Heidel said that he noticed the collapse and tried to hold his mount together, but he continued the sprint, and when at the sixteenth pole sank from under him and fell when he was leading his field by half a length.

length.

George W. was on the rail when he fell and was followed by Burton on Royal Wisdom and Kelly on Oleometer, both going down over George W. Royal Wisdom turned a complete sommersault.

George W. fell dead in his stall half an hour after the accident.

Hetdel is seriously injured and will hardly be able to ride this season. END OF SYRLIN.

The end came to a veteran race horse in the form of Syrlin, formerly Sevoy, an 8-year-old gelding, racing under the colors of Edgecombe & Co.

Byrlin ran in the sixth race at Union Park yesterday, broke down and had to be shot at the head of the stretch by a park policeman.

The name of the horse was originally Sevoy. He won many races and stakes.

It was plain that his racing days were over when he was first entered at Union a month ago, but, thinking that he might recoup a vestige of his oldtime form, he was given another trial. Yesterday the end came.

have been prone to underestimate, won the feature.

Sailors' Delight. Dutch Carter and Rain or Shine were scratched.

Morendo was the favorite at 2 to 1. The start was good and he won all the way. Kenova was poorly rated but came like a shot out of a gun at the finish and was a short head behind the winner.

Dodle S. a pronounced favorite was as good as left at the post in the fifth race. The mare acted hadly and had to be held by one of the assistant starters. When the field broke from the barrier she was three lengths behind the hunch. She made up much lost ground and finished fifth.

Morvis Volmer, at 7 to 1, won the race, with Bunana Cream second and Miss West third.

Chicara was best in the first race and won from Fordness under a superior ride by Waldo.

Big Injun, at 10 to 1, won the fourth

by Walde.

Big Injun, at 10 to 1, won the fourth race in a grand finish put up by Henderson. St. Noel, after shutting off several contenders, ran second.

Belle Rankin, the favorite, handliy won the sixth race. Randolph, Jr., was second and Blazon third.

The work of constructing a steeplechase course was commenced at Union Park yesterday. Manager Carmody said it would be finished by Baturday, when a steeplechase would be a feature.

First Three in Fair Grounds Feature Are Inches Apart on Post With Ice Water the Winner.

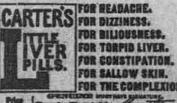

In a finish of the hair-raising variety, which spoke volumes for the evenness with which the field had been handicapped, Ice Water, Big Ben and Autumn Leaves finished noses apart on the post in the fourth race at the Fair Grounds and proved one of the best betting propositions of the card. Elastic's withdrawal left Ice Water a hot favorite, if an animai of so chilly a name can be said to be a warm public choice. Suffice it that the mare was held at the shortest price in mare was held at the shortest price in the odds however, and that she received the greater portion of the public play. Two Lick made her first appearance here since last season, and showed that she has lost none of her last year's speed by showing the way for the drst half mile at a pace that simply precluded the possibility of Mattie H. getting up to lead the field. Big Bed was a close section down the backstretch, and Ice Water was rated nicely along in third position.

Turning into the stretch, Ice Water moved up, and almost at the same time Big Ben passed the fading Two Linck, and set sail for home with an easy lead, autumn Leaves drawing up at the same time. For the last quarter, Big Ben and Autumn Leaves had a desperate straggie down the straight, with Ice Water closing ground slowly, but surely, on the outside.

Autumn Leaves had a desperate struggle down the straight, with Ice Water cleating ground slowly, but surely, on the outside.

Twenty yards from the wire the trio were lapped, and it was anyone's race. Then, under a vigorous finish from Austin, Ice Water got her nose in front just in time to pass the judges stand the winner. It was a thrilling race throughout, and the finish evoked wild applause from the spectators.

Pat Civili entered Sambo in a selling race, the last on the card, and saw the horse gailop home an easy winner. Crawford rode a nicely judged race, sent the big horse around his field at a steady rate and drew away in the stretch, with Easter Walters struggling violently near the inner rail in the effort to keep up.

Elle won the fifth event on the card quite as handly, although not so impressively. Laying back until the stretch was reached, Anderson sent the East mare forward, and she readily drew away from her field, when set down. She was favorite in the betting.

Forehand won the third race in clever style after shaking off his faild a furlong from home. The Handsel colt had to go around his field, but performed this feat successfully, after Mohave seems to like a shorter distance than the mile at which the race was run, as he showed high speel for three-quarters.

King's Trophy was held at odds-on in the second race, but public play seemed divided between Milton Young and Braden. The latter was bandily with Trophy outrun at every point. Milton Young was rather weakly handled by Lonnie Clayton and Austin put it over him in the run for the inst furlong.

In the opening event Inflammable won from Covina and John Randolph. The last three races on the card, went to warmly played favorities, and three of The Republic selections crossed the wire in front. The same twenty-five books which were on Monday cut. In for play and seemed to have a busy time in the course of the day.
